Festivities will include door prizes, entertainment, a buffet, and exhibitions by San Diego county's finest bowlers. Left to right are Manager Louis C. Sothras, 1237 J. Civic Parade Group Sets Dinner, Auction

A fun-filled, Old Times Days kick-off dinner (for an old fashioned , two dollars a person) has been scheduled for March 11, according to Catherine Gee, dinner chairman.

It was originally scheduled in January but conflicting dates caused its cancellation.

The affair will be held in Carman Ranch club dining room at Sweetwater near Palm and the attendance list will be strictly held to eighty, Mrs. Gee said.

A ten-course luau at 7 p.m will be preceeded by a 6 o'clock "happiness hour". "Happiness," said Margaret Sayward, arrangements chairman, "is three cocktails for a dollar."

Dr. Sam Smith, chairman of the Old Times Days Committee, said that the dinner will signal the start of work for all those who accepted committee assignments to bring Old Times Days to Lemon Grove May 25, 26 and 27.

Old Times Days is loosely associated with, but not sponsored by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Smith said.

Al Woods, manager of the Lemon Grove branch of the Bank of America, said there will be a door prize and a Dutch auction for those who care to participate "but participation is not mandatory for those who just want to come to eat," he said.

10 Course Dinner

The ten-course luau, catered by Henry Goldy's Aladdin service, will feature celestia chicken, ambrosia of the gods Hawaiian ribs, chop suey, an six other Cantonese delicacies

Clifford Clark, television dealer, wil be in charge of pre dinner refreshments. "Three for a dollar is turning the clock. It's symbolic of what we plan to do during the three day celebration in May, too," he said. Clark and his aides will sport derbies, sleeve holders and other Gay 90's dress.

Guests are invited to wear luau informal dress, Mrs. Gee said. "Hawaiian shirts for men and muu muus for women will be the rule rather than the exception," she said. Mmes. Gee and Sayward will decorate the ballroom in Island fashion.

One of the highlights will be the auctioning of an oil painting by Dr. Smith—a seascape. He contributed the art piece to the organization. A decorative black bottle fashioned by J. Daniels, will also go at auction.

Two Dollar Dinner

The cost is two dolars a person, according to Mrs. Gee.

Attendance is by reservation only, she warned, and reservations may be made to Joyce Foss, secretary at the L.G. Chamber of Commerce. She can be reached at the chamber office, 469-9621.

Members of the Old Times Days Committee will have first call on the tickets, she said. Then the public will get the remainder in the order reservations are made, she said.

A short program by a spokesman for San Diego's bi-centennial celebration will follow the luau and a Dixieland Jazz combo will entertain before and after the other festivities.

What the New Blast Means

Shock waves of one of the greatest man-made nuclear blasts in history were recorded Saturday and it bodes ill for the free world.

The blast was set off in the Russian atomic testing area by a government that is a participant in a treaty on baning atomic testing.

It is probably needless to restate that the communist's ideology is inimical to that of the free-enterprise, freedom centered system—the system so greatly desired by any people who have a choice.

The blast was equivalent to one million tons of TNT and the jolt was recorded by the Atomic Energy Commission.

In the guiet that followed the blast there was the ominous suggestion that the communists have a destructive capability greater than ours. Cmmunists' demands have always been coupled with their belief that they are superior—or that they believe we thought them to be superior in war power.

After the acquisition of our atomic secrets by other governments, any nuclear advantage we said we possessed were largely on paper. Whether enemy governments with wide ranging intelligence aparatus believed our paper superiority —as yet untested—is another story.

We really haven't done much to convince anyone that we are strong. As an example, our greatest individual Viet Nam victory to date has been the destruction of a few hundred Viet Cong and civilians—at the cost of a few hundred American lives.

This is war? This is dealing from strength?

The Republican Congressional Committee has just released a dialog delineating dangers and derelictions of the missile-nuclear gap.

Based on an opinion that four times as many Americans will die as a result of a nuclear attack if we have no anti-ballistic missile system than if we have one, it castigates McNamara for dragging his missile feet.

McNamara's critics aver that his faulty judgment will cost the lives of 90 million more Americans than it would if there was an operational ABM system—if we suffer an atomic attack.

Think of it! 120 million Americans will die if Russia or China unleashes a nuclear attack on an America without an effective ABM system. 30 million will die even if we have one.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has resisted instituting an ABM program because of its 40 billion cost that would be spread over ten years.

Yet, no one has suggested that we cut that much out of our foreign waste programs and use the money to defend our own people in spite of the fact that much of the treasure we send overseas directly aids communists—even to supplying the arms used against Americans in Viet Nam.

A cutback might also delay the coming emergence of 90 million or more underprivileged people around the world—but compared to the bitter end that would come to 90 million Americans because of the choice there should be no question. The underprivileged can emerge ten years later.

Name, if you can, one nation that would give leadership in world freedom if America should collapse—a collapse that is certain to follow the revelation that our nuclear deterrant system is second to our enemy's.

How did the anti-ballistic missile system situation stand before Saturday's blast?

The Soviet Union recently deployed ABM's around its major cities. We have no such protection. Russia can now come into agreement to stop its ABM program and possess a full ring of ABM protection, already installed, already operational.

We—Uncle Sam—respecting such an agreement, would live —if that's the proper word—nakedly unprotected.

At one time we had a Nike X missile defense program but Secretary McNamara overruled military judgment and junked it.

The Nike X was a complex weapons system employing two solid-propellant missiles, both fired from silos. The triggering system was radar units and computers. The Njke Zeus missile was designed to intercept and destroy missiles outside the borders of the U.S.

The smaller Sprint missiles was to be launched at great speed and would attack enemy missiles which penetrated the Nike-Zeus screen.

McNamar believes there is a strong, more effective system, but so far, his philosophy is in the paper stage.

He envisions an improved missile force called the Posei-

FREAK OF NATURE — This native California Holly Bush, grown from a seedling nineteen years ago by Ben and Lois Kerfoot, 3003 Olive St., Lemon Grove, is truly an oddity of nature, as it stands 25' high, and 20' wide, surpassing other members of its species by 15' in height and 12' in diameter. The Kerfoots say they only watered it to get it started.

11-Year Old Hunter Bags First Bobcat

Eleven year old Douglas Montgomery, of 8417 Roy St., in Lemon Grove, has done what nearly every young man wants to do. He hunted down and shot a bobcat.

Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montgomery, was on a dawn hunting trip with his father earlier this week. They spotted fresh cat tracks in the Sweetwater River bed, about five miles east of the Singing Hills golf course.

The hunters separated to hunt down the predator and Douglas spotted him in a tree several hours later.

While Dad looked on Douglas took careful aim and fire. The 25 pound bobcat tumbled as the proud papa looked on.

"The youngster has sharp eyes," the elder Montgomery said. "I would never have spotted the cat."

It was Douglas' first hunt although he had been target shooting with his Dad many times.

The agreement was that Douglas could go hunting when he learned complete respect for his gun.

"Not only is he careful with the use of the gun but he can dismantle and reassemble it faster than I can," his Dad said.

"He is probably the youngest hunter to have bagged a bobcat and he is a little younger than the age I would prefer him to start hunting, but he became so proficient I had to let him go," Charles Montgomery said.

Douglas shot the cat with a .22 rifle. The cas was not rabid, it was later discovered.

Shoe Burglar Faces Tests

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A Spring Valley man with a compulsion to steal women's sandals has been ordered to undergo an examination to determine if he is a mentally disordered sex offender.

He is Theodore Terrell Reynolds, 19, 10051 Casa de Oro Blvd., a laborer. According to the probation report Reynolds entered some 44 houses, 20 of them in Spring Valley, Mt. Helix and La Presa and removed only pairs of sandals.

He pleaded guilty to two counts of burglary and two others were dismissed.

The probation officer said that except for the bizarre burglaries, Reynolds has a good work reputation and clean adult record. He is married with wife about to give birth to their first child at the time of the report.

Board Re-Seats Dr. McCandless

Three members of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District board of trustees, Monday night, voted to reseat Dr. William McCandless on the board, after he was dismissed a week ago.

The three members were Rev. Arne Christianson, president of the board, Hardy Kuykendahl and Victor Walton. Absent were Fred Jabusch and Dr. McCandless.

McCandless was removed from the board by Rev. Christianson, because it was his contention that a member cannot serve on two boards at the same time.

Dr. McCandless had been nominated as a member of the State Board of Education. But last week Governor Reagan refused to consent to Dr. McCandless' appointment.

Dr. McCandless, who was elected to the LM-SV board in 1964, will have his term concluded in June of this year.

Read Psalm 32; Luke 15:11-24

"Father, I have sinned against and before you." (Luke 15:18, RSV)

In this age of affluence and accomplishment, we are beset with many unsolved problems. As individuals and groups, we have sought answers from leaders in various fields of study, such as sociology, economics, education and political science.

However, the answers we get are confused and perplexing. In every field of thought the objective thinkers are distressed that the myths of power and progress have proved to be deceitful. And when we turn to examine ourselves, we feel like crying out to God "Father, I have sinned."

Redeemed sinners are those whom the Father has forgiven after they have prepared for the indwelling of His spirit by confession their sins. Humility of spirit prepares our hearts for the inflowing of

We exemplify our faith God's love, light and power. when we pray, "Father, I have sinned." It is a confession of sin and also a confession of faith in God as revealed in Christ, and our relation to Him as our Redeemer and Companion.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, may we not worship our knowledge and power and achievements in the things temporal. Help us to put first Thy kingdom and Thy righteousness. Teach us to walk humbly with Thee; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thought for the day: "The higher a man is in grace, the lower will he be in his own esteem."

Newsman, 80, Dies Here

Memorial services for Sidney G. Evans, 80, of 211 Massachusetts ave., Lemon Grove who died Sunday, will be held at 3:30 p.m. Saturday in the Unitarian Church at 4190 Front Street. Dr. Jack Ensign Addington, a close friend, will come from Pasadena to conduct the ceremony.

Evans, a bachelor, resided at the Monte Vista Lodge in Lemon Grove for the past three years. He was a native of Nebraska, and a resident of San Diego County 42 years.

He became interested in newspaper work during his college days at the University of Nebraska, where he was on the college paper staff for one year. Shortly after graduation he became editor of his hometown newspaper, the Hastings Daily Republican, where he remained four years.

In 1910 he came to California where he worked for the Scripps papers in Los Angeles and Sacramento. At other times he worked for the City Press, a local news service in Chicago, and in Washington, D.C., where he worked for the National Voters League Publication "Searchlight on Congress."

In 1918 Evans was assigned to an expedition to Russia by the Committee on Public Information, a Government information agency. When World War 1 ended, in November of that year, he toured China, Japan and other areas of the Far East before coming back to the United States.

Evans, who always lived modestly himself, contributed hundreds of thousands of dollars to educational foundations. In 1963 he made a single donation of more than a quarter of a million dollars for educational purposes.

Because of his strong beliefs in "free enterprise" and strong locally-controled governments, he opposed State and Federal programs.

These basic beliefs led him to the teachings of Henry George, the American economist who advocated that all taxes be removed from production and property except that on land.

Evans was known throughout the world for his interest in and work with the Henry George tax reform movement.

Two years ago Evans spent $25,000 on full-page advertisements in eight California newspapers to promote a bill in the Legislature that would have exempted improvements and personal property from taxation.

His basic beliefs were that production should not be hampered by taxes and controls, and the only controls should be the supply and demands of a free market. He was particularly displeased with the general practice of levying low taxes on slums.

Evans had no survivors.

A group of members of the Lemon Grove Methodist church headed by Lemon Grove Methodist pastor Frederick Strathedee, attended a lay leaders meeting with Methodist Bishop Gerald Kennedy Monday at El Cortez Hotel.

"A perfect traveler creates the country through which he travels," Bishop Kennedy told the overflow crowd. Many people travel through religious life untouched and untouching, he added.

He also discussed the growing problem of teen-age dope use. "Teenagers using drugs often do so out of boredom," he said.

The problem can't be solved by science. It must be solved by lay people, he said.

CRANIAL NERVES and CHIRO-PRACTIC

There are twelve pairs of Cranial nerves, namely: Olfactory, Optic, Oculomotor, Trochlear, Trigeminal, Abducement, Facial, Acoustic, Glossopharyngeal, Vagus, Accessory, Hypoglossal. There is one, the Acoustic or Auditory, which does not leave the cranial vault at all, but enters the inner ear through the internal auditory meatus. The first (upper) six constitute a rather closely related group, which communicate with each other and have axons joining them from the sympatic nerve system. The remaining (lower) six form another group closely related, communicating with each other, chiefly through the ganglia in and near the jugular foramen, and axons joining them from the sympatic nervous system, through the superior cervical ganglia. Owing to the efferent nerves which join the cranial nerve conduits from the sympatic nervous system, functional communication from the spinal system is established. Therefore, impingements upon spinal nerves or spinal cord do interfere with transmission of mental impulses to exactly the same tissue regions supplied by cranial nerves. This, then, produces incoordination in those tissues and eventually possible disease. You don't have to understand every premise or every proceedure in chiropractic in order for its anatomical and physiological phenomena to function in your sick body. Chiropractic works in you, despite your believing in it or not. Consult the Chiropractor of your choice.

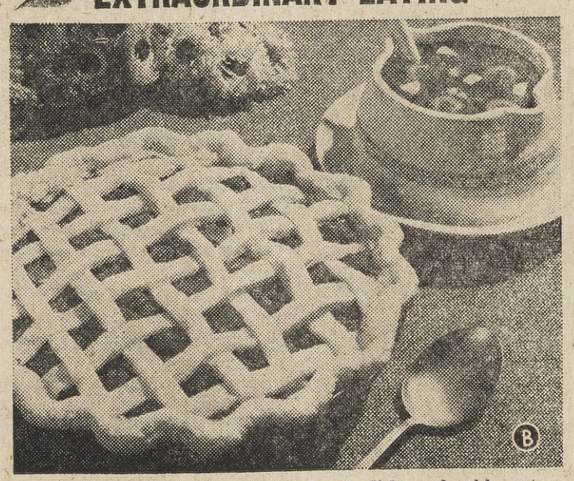
MEAT PIE MAKES FOR EXTRAORDINARY EATING



From time to time it's fun to put a dish as frankly extraordinary as this South American Meat Pie on your table. While it's true that rolling and latticing the pastry will require more preparation time, the results, calculated in raves from your family, are well worth the few extra minutes.

Ground beef is the main ingredient in the pie filling mixture. The secret of its moist goodness and rich flavor is the artful addition of canned beef gravy. There is no better way to add extra beefy flavor and retain juicy tenderness than with this bit of cooking magic. Simply open a can of gravy and you have smooth, full-flavored, good gravy right at your finger-tips. Embroider the robust taste of this hearty mixture with green pepper, tomato, onion and seasonings.

To serve the pie, slice it into wedges. Spoon over each serving some of the remaining gravy, dressed up with sliced olives and hard cooked eggs.

Round out your meal with hearts of lettuce salad, a fruit dessert, and milk and coffee.

South American Meat Pie

1 pound ground beef
½ cup chopped green pepper
½ cup chopped tomato
⅓ cup minced onion
¾ teaspoon cumin
½ teaspoon salt
1 can (10¾ ounces) beef gravy
1 package (about 10 ounces) pie crust mix, prepared
3 stuffed olives, sliced
1 hard-cooked egg, chopped
Dash cayenne

In skillet, cook beef, green pepper, tomato, onion, ½ teaspoon cumin, and salt until vegetables are tender. Pour off fat. Stir in ¼ cup gravy. Cool. Roll pastry for bottom of 8-inch pie pan and strips ½-inch wide for lattice top. Fill pie shell with meat mixture; top with latticed pastry. Bake at 425°F. for 25 minutes. Meanwhile, in saucepan, combine remaining ingredients. Heat; stir now and then. Serve sauce with pie. Makes 4 servings.

24 Reasons For 'Vive les Girls'

And, there they were. Twenty-four beautiful girls standing on the arena stage at Circle Arts Theatre Tuesday night.

Twelve of the gorgeous damsels wore nothing above their waists except an exotic hairdo.

Yet, some of us were ogling a female patron in the front row, across the theatre, whose miniskirt was hiked a foot above her knee.

That, in a nutshell, is what happens when there is too much nudity on stage. And that, in a nutshell describes Frederic Apcar's "Vive les Girls", an adult-only show, playing for two weeks at the newly reopened Circle Arts playhouse.

It is lavish, as advertised. It is daring. It is adult. And entertaining, too. The generous sprinkling of bald heads in the circle of seats near the stage gave it a slightly burleque flavor.

Individual acts were good. And none of the performance was boring. Those who like Las Vegas-type revues will love it. So will the uninitiate—after the first shock of seeing all those unadorned feminine adronments on stage in en masse.

Auto Safety Belts

Experts estimate that more than 5,000 lives would be saved each year in the United States and that injuries would be reduced by one-third if everyone used auto seat belts, says the Insurance Information Institute.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

My name is Sidney G. Sunbury, formerly of 2345 Sweetwater Rd., Spring Valley.

Approximately 5 years ago your paper had me all over the front page as a result of some trivial thing which happened at Mt. Miguel high school.

At that time I was young and foolish in doing what was done.

I am now serving with the U.S. Forces in Tay Ninh, Viet Nam. My main reason for this short letter is to express my apologies to all the Sunburys in Lemon Grove and La Mesa. I also wish to express my deepest sympathy for my uncle—Edwin Sunbury, of La Mesa, who recently passed away.

Being in Viet Nam has truly made a man of me, and in event of my death, I wish to express my thanks to the many people who have helped me find an accepted name of Sunbury!

Among them were the Kens, Savarys, Bostwicks and the Cochrans. They are just a few who helped me find the good way.

I am now married and have a son, who I spent one month with before leaving, and I really miss my family.

I would appreciate you letting me know what a subscription would cost.

Also anyone who knew me in the past, I would like to hear from as the mail is the biggest morale booster in Viet Nam.

Sincerely Yours,
Sgt. Sid Sunbury

Dear Sergeant:

You'll get your copy of this newspaper every week with the compliments of the editor. We do this for any of the boys in Viet Nam who request it. It is a very small way of letting you know we appreciate your sacrifice.

We'll also use this column to encourage our readers to write to Sgt. Sid Sunbury—whether they know him or not.

Let's hear it for this fine, young man.

the editor

Dear Editor:

Once upon a time, so the story goes—the Swallows flying north found San Juan Capistrano. The accommodations were so good they have been coming back every year. This year will not be different. Their reservations read March the 19th. The little city of San Juan Capistrano will celebrate this event on Saturday, March the 18th with a wonderful Parade and Rodeo.

The Old Mission of San Juan Capistrano will celebrate this event Sunday, March the 19th (St. Joseph's Day—a very important date in the Franciscan Calendar). The day will start with Mass and devotional ceremonies in the morning. In the afternoon there will be a Pageant presented within the walls of the beautiful and historic site.

The Ninth Annual Fiesta de las Golondrinas Parade will be held on Saturday, March 18th at 12:00 noon. The parade route will be approximately 2½ miles, traveling down the main streets of the city and past the Old Mission. This is an all-equestrian parade (no motor operated vehicles permitted.) The Fiesta Board proudly announced that this year there will be Co-Grand Marshals Gary Vinson (star of TV series "Pistols & Petticoats") and Andy Prine (star of TV series "Road West".)

Tom Davis,
Fiesta President.

Average incomes in the U.S. have doubled since 1950 while food costs have risen only 25 per cent, according to figures gathered by the Council of California Growers.

Only You Can Stem The Tide Of Rising Traffic Accidents

Who is responsible for the majority of auto accidents in this community and on our highways? Is it the automobile manufacturer in Detroit? Is it the police, local or state, who are lax in enforcing safety laws? Is it our large brood of young drivers whose motoring manners are as fresh as their licenses?

Shockingly, we, you, the man next door, and everyone who pulled a car away from a curb today in every local community in every city and town in the country are the ones who are largely responsible for "the rising tide of blood" on our roads. We are the ones who literally must stem the tide.

This was brought vividly to our editorial attention by a current study on automobile safety in a booklet which crossed our desk today. Originally written for a publication of Employers Insurance of Wausau, Wausau, Wis., the article has been reprinted at popular demand by the company for free distribution to interested parties. A hard-hitting, in-depth piece, which uses words as an automatic power hammer handles nails, it surveys the field of automobile safety from manufacturer to motorist.

From its beginning, which talks startlingly of how American soldiers are statistically safer in Viet Nam than on American highways, the pamphlet spares few delicate sensibilities to make harsh sense.

The booklet points out that auto accidents are multiplying in number and that their severity is increasing. It emphasizes that "the guilt-edge remedy" of financial compensation, to salve our collective public conscience for injuries and fatalities suffered in highway accidents, is far from a solution and distracts attention from the need for a few ounces of prevention.

"You can't fix a leak with a mop," states the author, Digby Whitman, editor of the Employers Insurance of Wausau publication. "The pay-'em-off-and-forget-it policy cost this country almost twelve billion dollars a year, nearly two per cent of the gross national product."

Improved safety features in the manufacture of automobiles, partially inspired by the recent Ralph Nader controversy, are to be applauded, he says, but then makes the point that no machine injures by itself — only by human error.

We shuddered but were impressed by the author's question: "When the car climbs the sidewalk and butters an old lady along the side of a building, will she be comforted by the reflection that the driver and his passengers are insulated from all harm?"

Summarizing the article's principal message, two methods are open to change human behavior behind the wheel of a car. They are persuasion and compulsion, or in plainer words, education and law enforcement.

Of the two, education is the more valuable "ounce of prevention." Soaring statistics show urgent need for driver education in every state public high school system. Today, young drivers under 25 years old make up approximately one-fifth of the nation's drivers but are responsible for one-third of our auto accidents and one-third of all fatalities caused by auto accidents. Yet, only 18 states include driver education for teen-agers in high school curriculums.

Rather than laying all the blame for accidental death and injury on intentional economy by auto manufacturers, we should clip human error in the bud with driver education in the schools. And rather than making more laws, we should enforce the ones that already are on the books with greater zeal.

We can't detour the conclusion. Safety on our city streets and highways is everyone's responsibility. What are you doing about it?

"America, America, I love to be in America!" sings Elaine Webster, Helix's American Service student from Barbados in the West Indies.

Elaine lives with the Allen R. Perry family at 4429 Summit Drive, La Mesa.

"When I finally met my American family, it felt like a reunion with old friends since we had written many leters before I came here. My feeling of 'lostness' wore off and I was ready to adjust to my new life in America," Elaie said.

"While waiting for a plane at the Los Angeles airport, my suitcase handle broke. I almost cried as I saw what an impersonal place it was; everyone seemed so preoccupied," Elaine said.

Elaine Webster

"While driving from the airport, I was fascinated by the freeway system, but appalled by the number of billboards and the dry vegtation," Elaine said.

"My American family took me out to eat the first week I was here. I was very impressed with the atmosphere and the informality of dress," Elaine said.

"My experience with the beach was one of my biggest surprises. Was this sunny California? At home the water was much more clear, calm, and warm!" Elaine said.

"I have become very aware of the fast pace of life in America. At home we do many of the same things at a more liesurely pace," Elaine said.

"School work and the social interest placed on school activities have been the biggest differences I've noticed between the two countries. Our school work routine is more rigid, but we don't work as much for grades as the students in this country do. The emphasis is placed on the ability to pass major exams at the end of our senior year." Elaine said.

"There isn't as much emphasis placed on the senior year of high school either. There are no graduation exercises, senior pictures, or cheerleaders," Elaine said.

"The mad way some of the teenagers drive is on thing I can't get used to," Elaine said. "On the whole, though, I like the American teenager because they are mature and independent. I'm also very impressed with the number of teenagers who are able to hold down jobs, study, and take part in so many school activities."

"One thing which really surprised me was the relationship between children and their parents. The frankness of discussions is different here and I had to adjust myself to this. However, this relationship is one thing I admire most about Americans," Elaine said.

"All in all, I find life here extremely interesting and rewarding. I have truly learned that people are deep down the same the world over."

Water Facility Bids Now Open

The State Department of Water Resources is advetrising for bids today for construction of the San Diego desalted water transmission facility in San Diego County.

Bids for the job will be opened March 16 in Los Angeles. The work is expected to cost about $200,000.

The pipeline will convey desalted water from the U.S. Office of Saline Water Facility San Diego Saline Water Test Facility to the City of San Diego. The Department will use the pipeline to test the effects of desalted water on an operating facility.

Test sections of pipe within the pipeline will consist of varying materials and lining. The pipe materials are being supplied under separate contract.

The job involves construction 15,000 feet of 16-inch pipeline from Bay Boulevard and Moss Avenue in Chula Vista to a storage tank on Palm Avenue.

A pumping plant with four pump units and other facilities will be constructed near Industrial Boulevard and Palm Avenue in Chula Vista. Two of the pump units will have a capacity of 700 gallons per minuite, one a capyacity of 550 gallons per minute and one a capacity of 150 gallons per minute.

A 2,700 foot section of 12.75-inch pipeline will be placed under Iris Avenue in San Ysidro.

Work under this contract is scheduled for completion in July 1967.

Property Assessment Forms Mailed To County Owners

County Assessor, E. C. Williams, has mailed more than 105,000 property statement forms and exemption claims to individual and corporate owners as a first step in preparation of San Diego County's 1967 local Assessment Roll.

Failure to receive a 1967 declaration blank does not relieve a property owner from the legal requirement to inform the assessor of the status of his property on the tax date which by law is the first Monday in March (March 6, 1967).

Businesses must declare all personal property, including merchandise inventories, goods in process, fixtures and equipment, livestock, etc.

Owners of rental property wherein tenants own all or a portion of the furnishings must declare such information for the assessor's use. Failure of a landlord to comply may result in the contents of the dwelling unit being assessed to the recorded owner of the real estate.

California statutes were amended by the 1966 Legislature to require that "every person, upon request of the assessor, shall provide information essential to preparation of assessment."

Williams emphasizes the law provides penalty for non compliance.

The 1966 Legislature established new legal deadlines for filing exemption claims.

Final date to file applications for the Welfare exemption has been changed to March 15.

All other exemption claims, including Veterans Exemption, must be filed by April 15.

William says he has mailed exemption claim forms to each of more than 60,000 veterans who received exemption in this county last year. The completed form should be returned by mail, or in person if more convenient, to the Assessor before 5:00 p.m. April 17, since April 15 falls on Saturday in 1967.

A voucher acknowledging receipt of the claim will be mailed the claimant. If a claim is disallowed, the veteran will be so notified.

Williams also said many exemption claims will be audited on a random sample basis to test accuracy of reporting. A recent test check of last year's claims revealed questionable claims had been filed in 6 percent of those examined.

Under State law each property owner has a responsibility to advise the assessor concerning status of his property. Failure to provide proper information, in the time and manner prescribed by law, constitutes a legal waiver of exemption for that year, Williams warns.

"In every instance—vacant land, improved real estate, and personal property—the Assessor must first establish actual cash (market) value of assessable property. A uniform ratio of 25 percent of market value will be used by my office to determine assessed value," said Williams.

"For exemption information, dial 232-0851, advises the assessor. "Other calls should be to 234-8813."

The Assessor's Office, 103 County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, is open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, as are two branches at 480 North Magnolia Avenue, El Cajon; and 325 South Melrose Drive, Vista.

Meanwhile, the threat to our survival has reached a climax. We can no longer be led to believe without proof that we possess the strength to overpower any enemy. We may very well have reached the state where we can no longer defend ourselves.

Unless Secretary McNamara, on whom the responsibility for the defense of this country rests, can reveal that he already has a superior operational system of deterrents, we may soon be sitting at the conference table, offering the United States to communism as condition to sparing the lives of all Americans.

To The Outiside World

By Kathy Powell

Last week found Mount Miguel in the grip of a sportman's holiday. Among the many activities keeping M.M.'s cheerleaders on the go were, the M.M. wrestling and basketball teams. Two weeks ago at the Monte Vista preliminary play-offs for C.I.F., eleven out of twelve wrestlers from Matadorland qualified to go on to Point Loma for the second round of play-offs. At the second match, ten out of those eleven came through for the final meet February 24. It seems that the Matador matmen are on their way. In basketball the story was very similar; the first round of elimination saw M.M. as the victor over Clairemont High 77-51. All in all, M.M.'s brawn has taken the campus by storm.

A small word of tribute to those dedicated to maintaining school spirit. This particular group includes the Matador cheerleaders and those hard-kneed poster painters. Over the past few weeks, reams of paper as well as cans ofposter paint have been used to show the team players that their school is behind them. It cannot be estimated how many new pairs of hose and cases of house maid's knee have resulted from such dedication As representatives of both groups, we say "HAIL" to Linda Minor and Orlee Holder. Keep up the good work!!!

Tomorrow, M.M. sends another type of competitive team to try their wings in the land of the trophy. The Mount Miguel speech team will be on its way to Whittier for the National Qualifiers speech tournament. Mount Miguel is with you all the way, so rake in the hardware!!!

Anti-Litter week ended last week, and by and large it might be termed a modest success. With the cooperation of the entire student body, M.M. completely frustrated the California seagull. Wonder what Freud would say about that!?!

'Let's Go A-Fishing'

"Let's Go A-Fishing," a narrated slide show by Dee and Alice Wead of San Diego, will be presented by the Southern California Association of Camera Clubs on Saturday, March 4 at 8 p.m. in the Balboa Park Rectital Hall. The event is cosponsored by the City Recreation Department.

The color slide show features the many fishing trips taken by the Weads and their adventures in the outdoors.

Admission is free to the public.

Mt. Miguel Takes Second Place In CIF Wrestling Tournament

Mt. Miguel High School placed second in the CIF tournaments with an accumulative 61 team points. Monte Vista took a first with 79 team points. The Matadors placed eight individuals in the finals on Saturday night, four in regular finals for 1st place and four in consolation finals for 3rd place. Altogether, Mt. Miguel captured one first place, three seconds, two thirds and two fourths.

Jerry Robinson, wrestling at 141 lbs., placed first, while Steve Ray, 98 lbs., Duane Conta, 130 lbs., and Louis Plante, 136 lbs., captured second places.

Thirds were taken by Mike Vorden, 148 lbs., and Dan Trienam at 157 lbs.

Fourth places went to Billy Royat, 118 lbs., and Florin Hiltz at 168 lbs.

Every year the "most valuable wrestler" award is presented to a deserving recipient. This year's winner was Jerry Robinson, 141 lb. senior at Mt. Miguel.

Monte Vista received the most individual first places, taking three first places: Dan Kido, 98 lbs., Glen Vabahaski, 130 lbs., and Ned Fousek, 136 lbs.

Helix High's Highland Notes

by Shauna McGregor

Our Nominating Convention has come and gone amid a flurry of confetti and hundreds of noisemakers. Student body officers are breathing sighs of relief, ready to leave next year's convention to the new ASB leaders who will be elected soon.

The Red Cross drive was held last month. A record amount was collected as representatives in first period classes brought in about $225.

More contributions will be made by Highlanders when 25 cent bonds go one sale to bring American Field Service students to Helix next year. The drive will feature competition between first period classes to collect the greatest amount of money.

A unique baseball game was held last week as our varsity baseball team played many of Helix's greatest alumni ball players. It was an exciting game with the varsity team coming out on top in a 2-1 victory.

And talking about unique games, the annual senior-faculty basketball game will be held Friday. The senior girls will first play the faculty woior boys playing the faculty men to be followed by the senmen.

James Peace was presented an Honorary Life Membership award at the February P.T.A. meeting at Monte Vista for his outstanding service and dedication to the youth of the community. Peace was a former teacher and counselor at Monte Vista and is currently vice-principal at El Capitan High School.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Most people think that they cannot learn Spanish well because they say they cannot learn to roll the Spanish r's. Rolling Spanish r's is not as difficult as some people may think.

All one has to do to roll the r's is to relax the tongue in the upper portion of the mouth with the tip of it pointed up and touching the upper palate. With the teeth almost together, force air over the top of your relaxed tongue and it will vibrate gently against the upper palate making a fluttering sound.

The rolled or trilled r is sympolized by a double r (rr) as in the word "burro." The single r as in "caro" is not trilled. The double r ((rr) as in the word "burro" is pronounced "BOO-rhrhoh." The single r as in "caro" is pronounced "KAH-doh" as if the r sound were converted to a soft d sound.

When the single r is used as the first letter of a word it is treated as a double r as in the case of "Roberto" which would be pronounced "rhrhoh-BEHR-toh." This is also true of the word "rosa" which would be pronounced "rhrhoh-sah."

Words in today's lesson contain the single r and the double r (rr). See if you can learn to pronounce them from the phonetic guide provided. If you wish to practice them more and be sure of your pronunciation, you may dial 276-2762 on your telephone where the words and phrases will be repeated for you on an automatic recording. A pause is provided between each word and phrase in which you are invited to practice repeating the same words and phrases.

IMPORTANT EXPRESSIONS

Say "Es caro." (ehs-KAH-doh)
for "(It is expensive."
Say "Es un carro." (esh con KAH-rhrho)
for "It is a car."

HOUSEHOLD EXPRESSIONS

Say "El es Roberto." (ehl ehs rhrhoh-BEHR-toh) for "He is Robert."
Say "Ella corre." (EH-yah KOH-rhrheh.)
for "She runs."

Civil Defense Course Graduates Set Meet

Graduates of civil defense courses in radiological meter operating in the Spring Valley area will meet at 9:30 a.m., March 2 at Headquarters Station, Spring Valley Fire District to review operating readiness, William B. Marty, county administrative officer for civil defense said today.

Graduates in the Lemon Grove area will meet at 1:30 p.m. March 2 at the Lemon Grove First Station, Marty said.

The review, one of 35 scheduled annually at locations throughout the county covers the 250 radiological monitoring stations that have been established in the countrywide RADEF (radiological defense) organization, he said.

"Such annual reviews are necessary to refresh and update trained personnel in the operation and upkeep of radiological meter instruments", Marty said. Such equipment includes Geiger counters, ion chambers and dosimeters.

Subjects covered include nuclear weapons effects, units of radiation measurement, use and checkout of instruments, procedures of reporting, radiation counter-measures and procedures in peacetime radiological accidents.

"Trained personnel in the RADEF Service are on call for duty in the event of a peacetime industrial or transportation accident involving nuclear materials as well as for service in case of a national disaster", he said.

More than 2,000 San Diego county individuals have been trained in radiological meter operating, he said.

Tax Tips

Thousands of Southern California taxpayers had their Federal Tax refunds held up last year because they forgot to send in certain statements required to complete their 1040's.

IRS District Director Frank S. Schmidt said the statement forgotten most often was the one needed to claim the sick pay exclusion. Form 2440 is available for this statement. Another frequently omitted was Form 3903 for moving expenses.

Special forms are avaialble for certain deductions, credits and exclusions claimed on Form 1040, Mr. Schmidt said. These forms are noted on Form 1040 and explained in the instruction booklet.

When a required statement is forgotten, instead of a refund being issued immediately, the taxpayer has to be contacted, told of the missing statement and asked to supply it. Until it has been received from the taxpayer IRS cannot process the refund, Mrs. Schnidt said.

The said Board of Supervisors hereby determines and declares that serial bonds shall be issued to represent each assessment of Fifty Dollars ($50) or more remaining unpaid after the last date for payment of assessments, as specified in the statement provided by Section 5390 of the Streets and Highways Code of the State of California. Said statement shall be mailed to each property owner within the assessment district at least thirty (30) days prior to the last date for payment of assessments. Said serial bonds shall extend over a period ending nine (9) years from the second day of January next succeeding the next September first following their date, and an even annual proportion of the principal sum thereof shall be payable, by coupon, on the second day of January every year following the next September first after their date until the whole is paid. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum, interest payable semi-annually, by coupon, on all sums unpaid until the whole of said principal and interest is paid; and said bonds shall provide that if said bonds are redeemed before maturity and before commencement of proceedings for sale, in addition to all other sums unpaid and accrued, a premium of five per cent (5%) of the unmatured principal shall be paid. Said bonds shall be issued and the principal, interest and premium shall be paid under and in pursuance of the Improvement Act of 1911 and amendments thereto.

The contemplated work and improvement hereinbefore mentioned is, in the opinion of said Board of Supervisors, of more than local and ordinary benefit to the public and the expenses of such work and improvement are made chargeable upon the district hereinafter described, and said Board of Supervisors does hereby declare said district to be the district benefited by said work and improvement, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof. Said district is described as follows, to wit: All that real property in the County of San Diego included within the exterior boundary lines of said district as shown upon that certain map bearing Improvement Act Area No. 177 indicating the exterior boundary lines of such district, which map, approved by said Board of Supervisors, is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego as Document No. 384065, excepting therefrom all public streets, roads, alleys, avenues and highways. Reference is hereby made to the map for a full and complete description of the assessment district and the map shall govern for all details as to the extent of the assessment district.

The said Board of Supervisors has heretofore directed the Superintendent of Streets in accordance with Section 5254.5 of the Streets and Highways Code to include in the contract a provision for liquidated damages in case the work called for under the contract is not completed within the time limit as prescribed by the specifications and contract (or such extension of time as may be granted by said Board), and has fixed the sum of $25.00 per day for each and every calendar day's delay in completing the work in excess of the number of calendar days prescribed.

It is the opinion of said Board of Supervisors that the public interest will not be served by allowing the property owners to take the contract for the work to be done under these proceedings.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Tuesday, the 7th day of March, 1967, at 11:00 o'clock a.m., in the chamber of the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego, Room 310, San Diego County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego, California, any and all persons having any objections to the proposed work or improvement, to the grade at which said work is to be done, or to the extent of the district to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses of said proposed work or improvement, may appear before said Board of Supervisors and show cause why said proposed improvement should not be carried out in accordance with this Resolution.

No other protests or objections will be considered. If the person signing the protest is not the owner shown on the last equalizied assessment roll, the protetst must contain, or be accompanied by, written evidence that such signer is the owner of the property.

The Clerk of this Board of Supervisors is hereby directed to cause this Resolution of Intention to be published twice in the Lemon Grove Review, the newspaper hereby designated for that purpose by this Board.

The Clerk of this Board of Supervisors is hereby directed to mail notice of the adoption of this Resolution of Intention, postage prepaid, to all persons owning real property proposed to be assesed, whose names and addresses appear on the last equalized County Assessment Roll, or as known to said Clerk, all in the time, form and manner required by law; if property assessed by the State under Section 14 of Article XIII of the Constitution is proposed to be assessed, such notice shall be mailed to every owner of such property at the address thereof shown on the last board roll transmitted to the County Auditor as required by Section 5070, Streets and Highways Code.

The Clerk of this Board of Supervisors shall, upon completion of the mailing of said notices, file with this Board an affidavit setting forth time and manner of the compliance with the above requirements for mailing such notices.

The Superintendent of Streets shall, after the adoption of this Resolution of Intention, cause to be conspicuously posted along the line of said contemplated work or improvement, at not more than three hundred feet (300') in distance apart, but not less than three in all, notices of the passage of this Resolution of Intention, all in the time, form and manner required by law; and thereupon said Superintendent of Streets shall cause to be filed in the office of the Clerk of this Board of Supervisors and affidavit showing the posting of said notices of improvement.

All of the herein proposed work shall be done in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, designated as the "Improvement Act of 1911" and amendments thereto.
